Bladen Community College offers various classes around the county, both certification and non-certification classes.

Bladen Community College has online education offering such as a 36 hour Firefighting Refresher, and various ISO required classes online. By offering online classes it allows for more education to maximize educational requirements for Fire Departments.

BCC supports the 580G program through the Office of the State Fire Marshal.

Bladen Community College can support any fire or rescue topic classes through certified and qualified instructors upon request from a local department
